"I ask you to consider that this college community is rightly viewed as a fabric woven of many kinds of people with many talents, contributions, interests, and purposes. We value all these persons' contributions and celebrate their different gifts which give the fabric of this community a brightness and a beauty of design."

President Ryan LaHurd
Honors Convocation
May, 1996

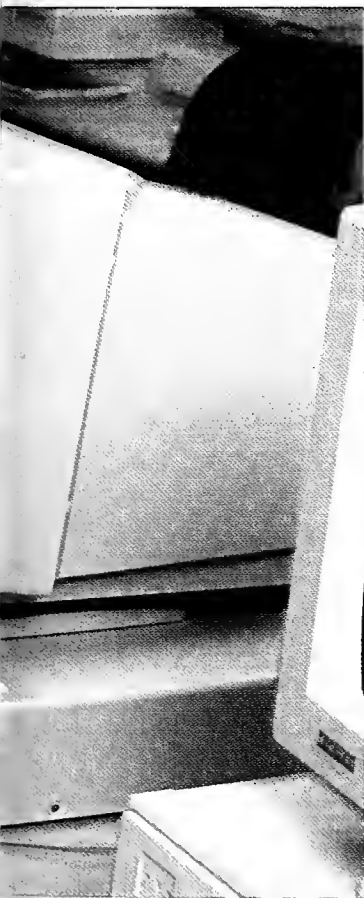

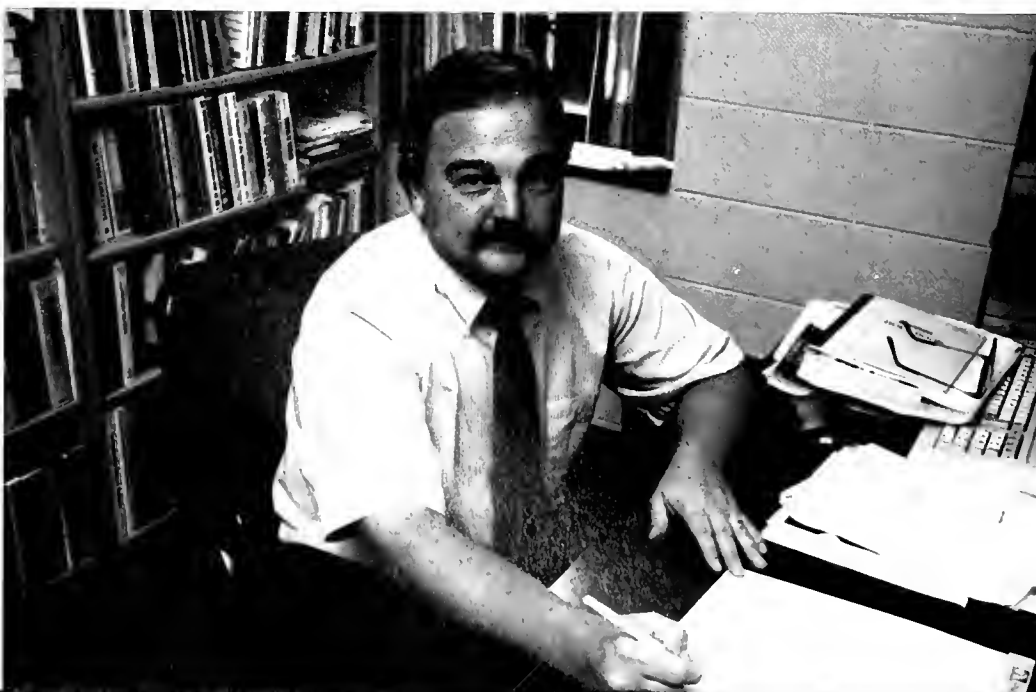

"We are foremost a community of learning."

"No one learns unless there is a teacher . . ."

“(we) would be nothing but a rather undistinguished piece of yarn were it not cross theirs in the fabric of Lenoir-Rhyne College.”

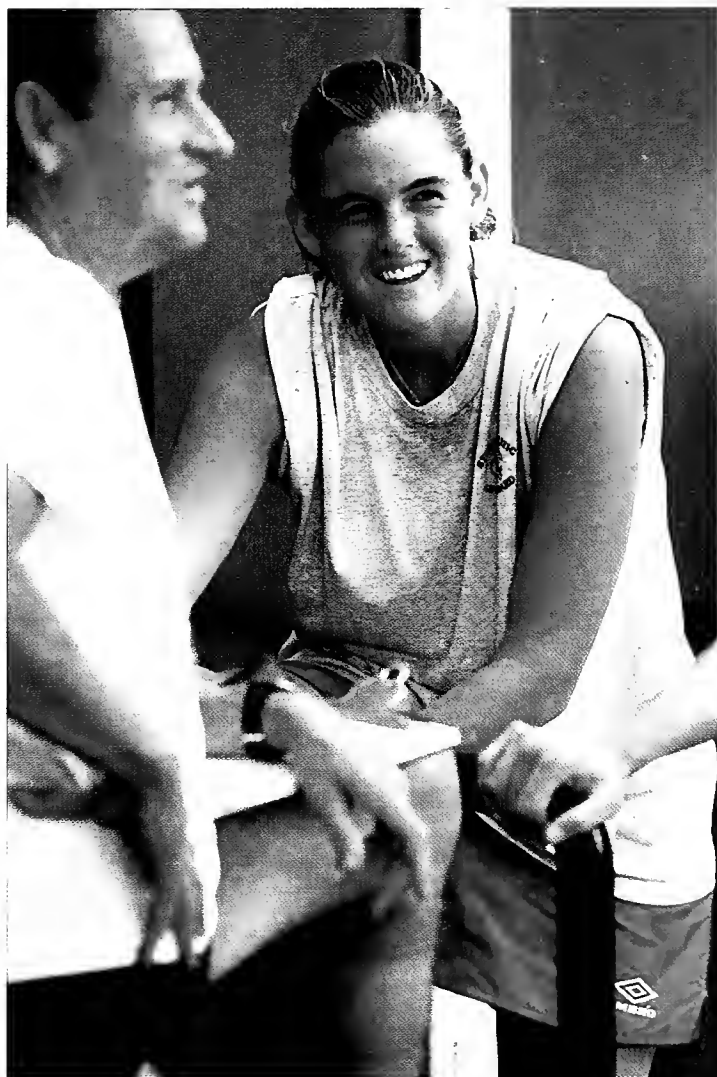

or the threads that

The fabric consists of alumni (opposite below), who share the dream of Lenoir-Rhyne; contributors (opposite top), who give freely to Fair Star; and parents (top), who nurture the college; and faculty (below) who teach and lead.

COMMUNITY HONORED ON MAY 1

DR. JOAN PARKINSON

PROF. RAY STRUNK

DR. MARSHA FANNING

The annual Honors Convocation was held in Monroe Auditorium on May 1, 1996.

After opening remarks by President Ryan LaHurd and an invocation by College Pastor Rev. Andrew Weisner, numerous awards and honors were given to members of the college community.

Dr. Joan Parkinson, Professor of Education, was announced the 1996 recipient of the Raymond Bost Distinguished Professor Award; Dr. Marsha Fanning, Professor of Biology, received the Roediger Professorship; and Professor Raymond Strunk, of the Business Department, was honored with the Dedication of the 1996 HACAWA.

Among the many other outstanding winners were Mrs. Laurie Wegner, who received the SGA Award; Chris Campbell, the SGA Leadership Award; Alanda Danner, the Dean's Award; and Lucas Zubrod, the Freshman Medal.

The Jerry Shaw Award went to Ms. Jackie Brown; Sara Cleaveau received the Journalism Award; and Ashley Woodward and Wade Wolgemuth were given the Intramural Ursus Awards.

The Cecilia Willard Science Medal went to Ashley Grigg; Michelle McCourt got the Freshman Award in Math; Ann Drum was the recipient of the Physics Achievement Award; and Amanda Munz was honored with the Political Science Award.

Cynthia Rand got the Sam Baker Drama Scholarship; Sandra Jahn received the Brandon Award in History; Michelle Bouchard was honored with the Pearl Setzer Deal Playmaker Award; and Jason Homer got the Berry Art Award.

The Media Excellence Award went to Cynthia Bonacum; the Raymond Strunk Scholarship was awarded to Karla Fowler; the Buring Award went to Donna Fleming; the Sociology Award was awarded to Kim Liner; and the Hickory Music Club Scholarship was given to Mike Langford.

GREEK AWARDS TURNS 30

The annual Greek Awards ceremony was held on April 29, 1996, in the Belk Centrum. It was the 30th anniversary of the awards, founded in 1967 by Dr. Ellis Boatmon, professor of history.

In honoring the achievement and excellence of the members of the college's eight Greek-letter social groups, the anniversary celebration was highlighted by a dinner in the bar's Lair the week before the awards night.

Named Greek organizations of the year were Pi Kappa Phi fraternity and Kappa Delta sorority (see pages 40-41). President LaHurd made the presentation.

Highlight of the individual awards was the naming of the Man of the Year and Woman of the Year by Mr. Mickey Payseur, recipient of the Man of the Year Award in 1973. Wade Wolgemuth (Pi Kappa Phi) and Denise Fellers (Delta Zeta) were the winners (see picture above).

Among the numerous other recipients were Susan Stogner and Sean O'Connor, named Junior Greeks; Kristi Wietzke, who received the David Adams Memorial Scholarship; and Wade Wolgemuth, named Greek president of the year with the Jane Jenkins Presidential Cup.

Emily Lawing and Ben Payseur were Pledges of the Year, Tripp Cody received the David Moose Leadership Award, and Brendan Doyle was the recipient of the Ellis Boatmon Community Service Award.

Recipients are chosen by committees composed of faculty, staff, and students.

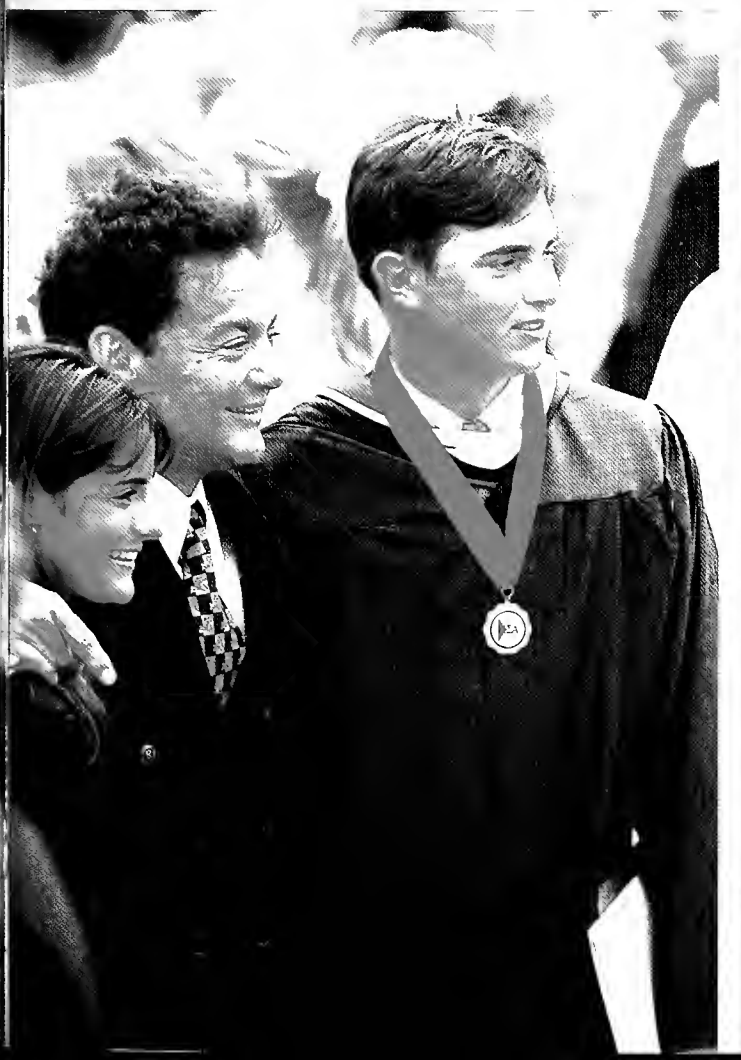

Lenoir-Rhyne held its 105th graduation services on May 11, 1996. The baccalaureate worship service was held at 9:30 a.m. in Monroe Auditorium. Rev. E. Roy Riley, Bishop of the New Jersey Synod, ELCA, delivered the message.

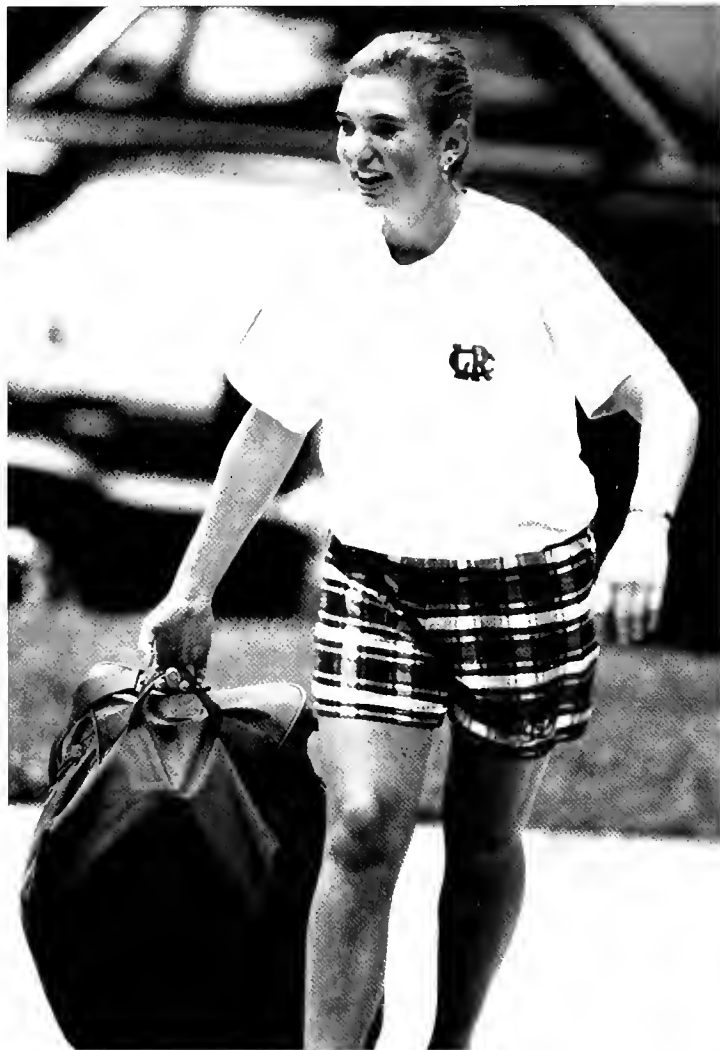

Commencement exercises were held at 1:30 p.m. in Shuford Gymnasium. Robert Inman, news broadcaster and author, delivered the main address. Mr. Inman is shown above with President LaHurd in greeting seniors.

Honorary degrees were awarded Reverend Riley (right) and Ms. Sue Setzer (opposite top). First honor graduates were Robin Loudermelk and Ashley Grigg.

COMMUNITY BEGINS AT PROLOGUE

The seeds of a community are planted in the first few days of the Fall term in what is called Prologue.

The Class of 2000 moved into the dorms (above left), were introduced to the rigors of registration (above right) and also took part in the ropes course (right) as well. The Prologue program, conducted by student leaders, was headed by Mike Langford and Dov Wills.

An Organizations Fair is held to introduce the freshman class to clubs and other groups. SGA President Stuart Bridgers discusses student government.

Each student needs a parking permit. Here Tony Salerno speaks with campus security.

There is time during Prologue for games. A volleyball game is soon underway.

PARENTS VISIT CAMPUS IN FALL

One of the major events at LR in the Fall term is the visit of many parents. Numerous events are planned. Parents gather in the Belk Centrum (above) to hear a report on the state of the college and often purchase items from the Bear Essentials Store, conducted by Phi Beta Lambda, held in the Centrum Lobby (opposite). There is ample time to talk with faculty (below left) and to taste some good food from Aramark, served in the Shaw Plaza (below right).

STAR-SPANGLED HOMECOMING '96

The biggest event in the Fall for the community is the celebration of Homecoming. The theme for 1996 was "A Star-Spangled" event.

In addition to class reunions, the Sports Hall of Fame held induction ceremonies for Hume Collins, Thomas Sellari, Jim Wiles, and Jack Huss (see page 36).

At halftime of the LR-Newberry football game, Miss Susan Stogner (right) was named Homecoming Queen.

There was a Homecoming parade with numerous floats. Kappa Delta Sorority won first place honors.

CLINE GYM REMEMBERED, RAZED

On August 23 (1996) the Board of Trustees voted to demolish Cline Gym. The building had deteriorated to the point that it had to be closed and that to repair the building would cost in the millions of dollars.

The building, named for LR founder the Rev. William P. Cline, also once housed men's dorms, the music department, offices and class space and areas for the college's theatre programs.

A final ceremony was held in front of the Gym on November 22 (1996). President Ryan LaHurd presided and introduced several speakers. Jeff Norris, co-author of FAIR STAR, placed the building in the history of the college, commenting that in 1921 students and faculty aided in its construction. Dr. Ellis Boatmon, also co-author of FAIR STAR, discussed the various uses of the building in its 73 years of existence.

Graduates Lloyd Little (1933), Sandra Cline (1972) and Chip Haas (1991) remembered the Gym from their school days. SGA president, Stuart Bridgers, spoke briefly on the use of the Gym as a laundry facility. Pastor Andrew Weisner gave a commemorative blessing. Music was provided by the Lenoir-Rhyne pep band and the College Singers.

NEW DEAN SPEAKS AT CONVOCAATION

Joining the staff of Lenoir-Rhyne for the 1996-97 academic year was Anita Johnson Gwin as dean of students.

President LaHurd noted that Gwin was "on loan" from her position as assistant academic dean for academic advising at Augsburg College in Minneapolis.

Gwin is a Ph.D. candidate in higher education policy at the University of Minnesota. She holds an M.A. from the University of South Dakota.

At Augsburg, Gwin is an expert on programs to prevent and deal with sexual harassment on college campuses. This formed the focus of her September convocation (right) in the Belk Centrum.

Gwin, who will leave Lenoir-Rhyne shortly after graduation in May, filled a vacancy created by the resignation of Dr. Edward Lewis, to pursue a law degree.

THEOLOGY MEET IN 4TH YEAR

The fourth annual Aquinas/Luther Conference was held at Lenoir-Rhyne November 10-12 as sponsored by the Center for Theology.

Other speakers included Deal Hudson, Romanus Cessario, James Mittelson, Paul Rorem, Paul Wadell and Larry Yoder.

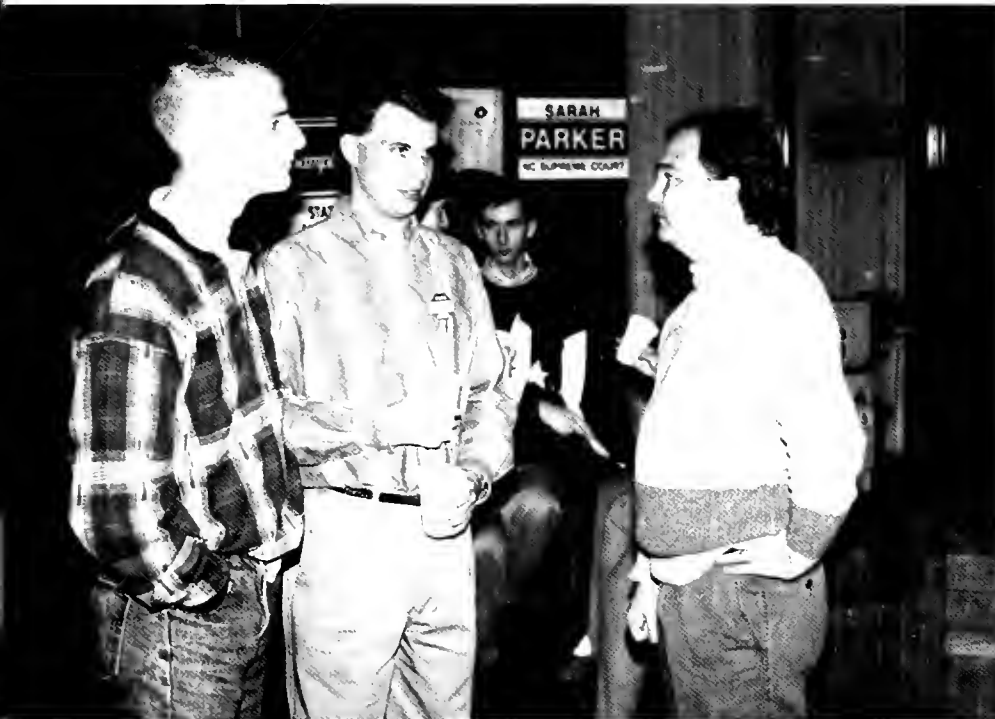

ELECTION CENTRAL, '96

Election night on November 5, 1996 was marked by the presentation of Election Central in the lobby of the Cromer Center.

Organized by the Department of Political Science, the focus was on speakers, election returns, and refreshments.

Television sets kept everyone up to date with voting returns and comments on the election and candidates were made throughout the evening.

YEAR IN REVIEW: CLINTON REELECTED

President Bill Clinton (above) and Vice President Al Gore maintained a strong and consistent lead in the polls during their campaign for four more years in the White House. The Democrats campaigned on a platform that featured a strong economy and a lower crime rate. Bob Dole (right) retired after 35 years in Congress to devote himself fulltime to running for President. At 73 he would have been the oldest person elected to a first time as president. As his running mate he picked Jack Kemp, a former cabinet member. They attacked the president's character and ethics while promoting the Republican 15 percent tax cut. President Clinton won the election and received a second term. The Republicans won control of both houses of Congress.

YEAR IN REVIEW: PERSONALITIES

Above left: Newt Gingrich of Georgia, Speaker of the House of Representatives, was reprimanded by the House Ethics Committee. He kept his post. Above right: Ross Perot was the 1996 nominee for the Reform Party. He lambasted budget deficits and big government. He lost. Left: Boris Yeltsin was re-elected President of Russia and pledged to continue the reforms he began five years ago. Yeltsin underwent open-heart surgery and was in poor health much of the year.

YEAR IN REVIEW: TRAGEDY, TRIAL

Above: Months after TWA Flight 800 exploded in midair in the summer of 1996, investigators were still searching for a cause. The Boeing 747 jumbo jet plunged into the Atlantic Ocean off the coast of Long Island, N.Y., just one minute after taking off from Kennedy Airport for Paris. Right: Football star, O.J. Simpson, earlier found "not guilty" of criminal charges in the death of his wife, Nicole, and her friend Ron Goldman, was found "liable" by a civil jury and ordered to pay damages.

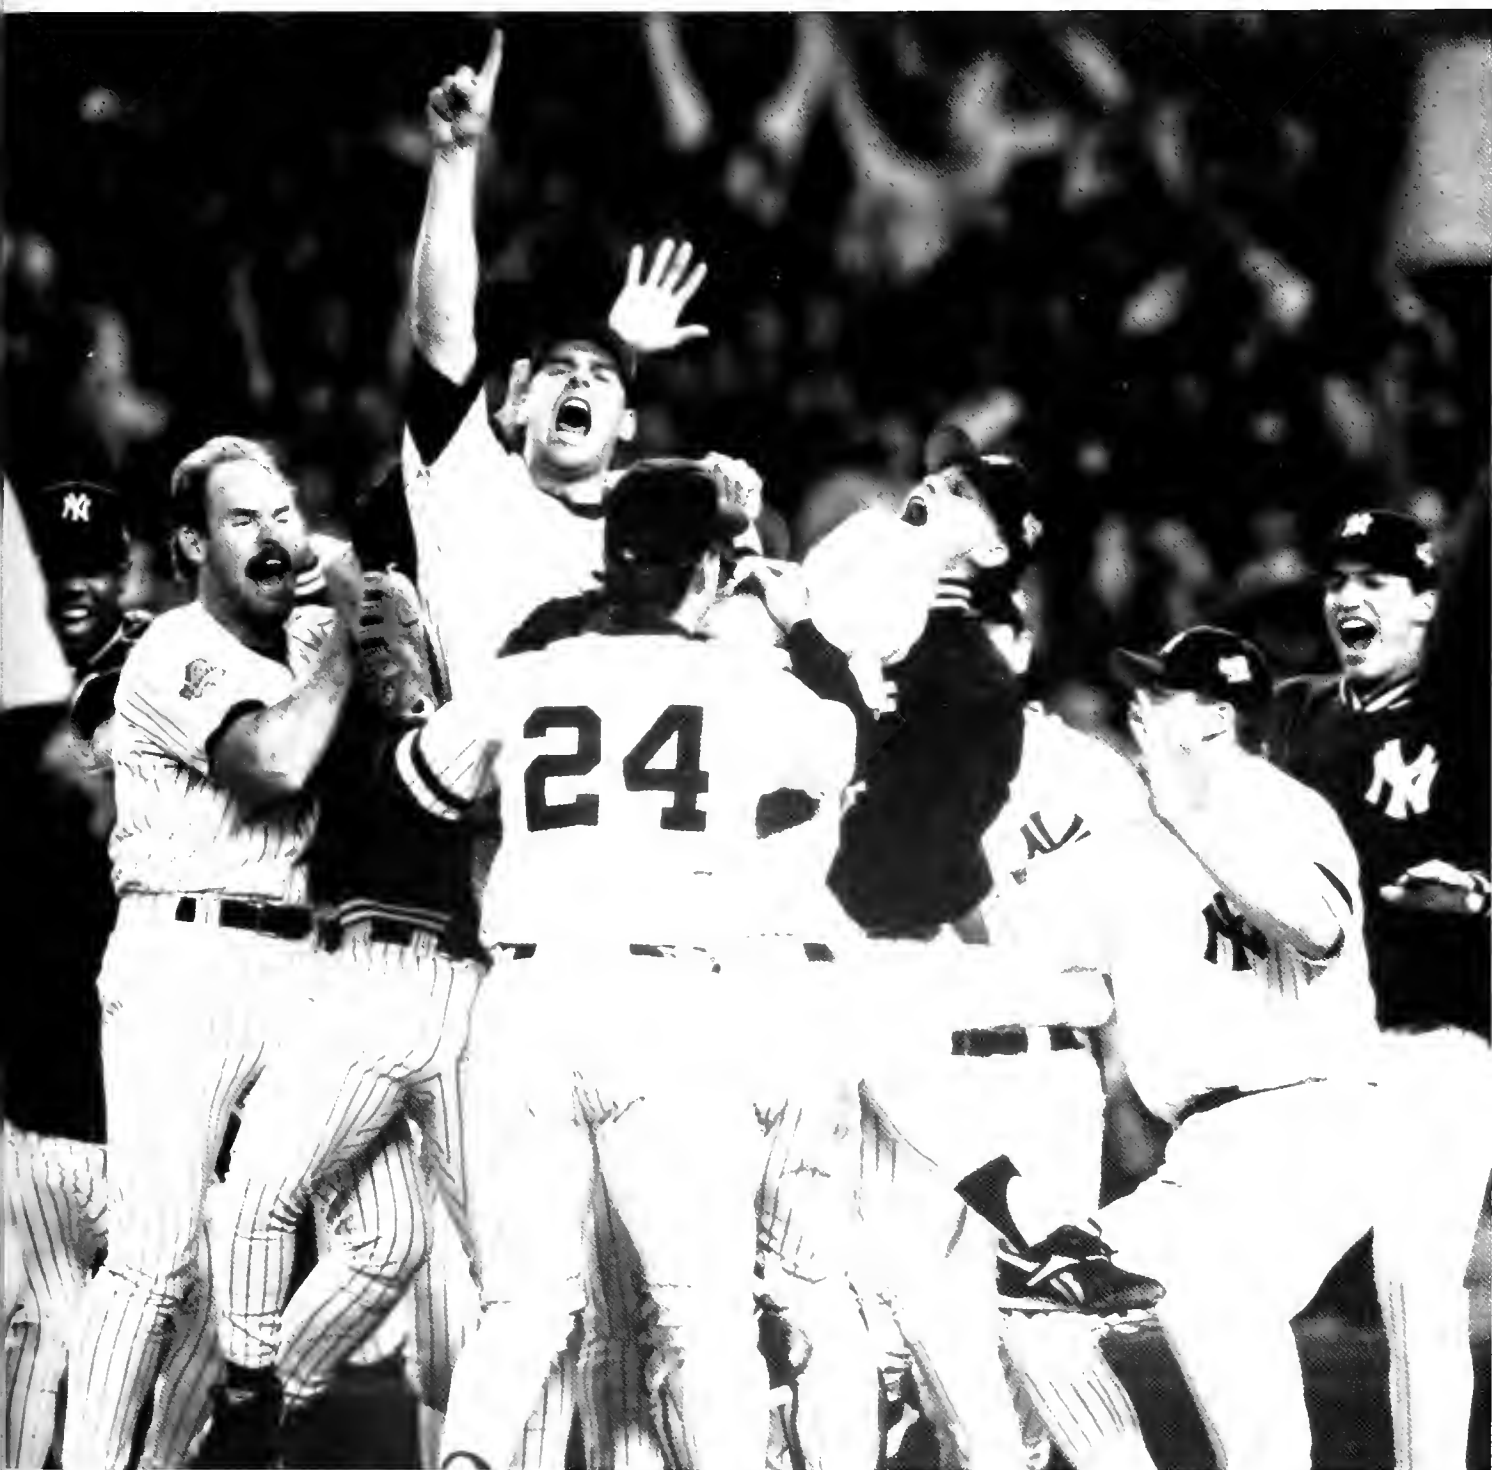

YEAR IN REVIEW: TRIUMPH, STRUGGLE

ight: Shannon Lucid, a 53-year old shuttle astronaut, set the women's record for consecutive days in orbit — 188. She has amassed 233 days in orbit since 1995. Below left: The seven members of the U.S. women's gymnastic team won the unlikely gold medals, when team member Kerri Strug made the clinching vault on a bad ankle. Coach Bela Karolyi carried her to the medal stand. Below right: Peace in the Middle East remained unstable. A crisis erupted when Israel opened a new exit in a tunnel in Jerusalem. President Clinton and Benjamin Netanyahu and Yasser Arafat (shown here) to Washington for talks.

YEAR IN REVIEW: SPORTS NEWS

opposite: It was late in the third quarter when Desmond Howard of the Green Bay Packers returned his first kick-off for a touchdown as a pro. And it was a whopper — a 99-yard return for the longest kick-off return in Super Bowl history. The Packers went on to beat the New England Patriots 35-21 in Super Bowl XXXI. Above: The New York Yankees brought a world championship back to the Bronx by edging the defending champion Atlanta Braves 3-2 in Game 6 of the World Series. This was the first championship for the Yankees since 1978, and their 23rd overall.

ARTS

One of John Steinbeck's most powerful novels is OF MICE AND MEN. The Playmakers presented a dramatic version as their closing show of the 1996 year.

Directed by Donegan Smith, the play featured Rick Fauquet as George and Shawn Hevel as Lennie. The two are pictured below. Also in the cast were Wade Wolgemuth, Jeph Payne, Amanda Cooke, Mat Eberhardt, Keith Saine, Nathan Yoder, Fred Robinson and Brian Amend.

The set was designed by Kent Buess. Production stage manager was Emily Nettnin.

STRONG CAST IN "LION IN WINTER"

The Lenoir-Rhyne College Summer Theatre presented a strong cast in its production of THE LION IN WINTER by James Goldman.

Performed in the Belk Centrum in early August, the play was directed by Dr. Ellis Boatmon with Dave McManus as technical director and Mimi Frankman as stage manager.

The cast featured Playmaker director Donegan Smith as Henry II and his wife, Toni, as Eleanor of Aquitaine. The two were appearing together on stage for the first time.

Also in the cast were John-Stuart Fauquet, Mark Adderholdt, Rick Fauquet, Mark Rose, and Carmen Robinson.

Also on the crew were Myron Suber, Casey Tribble, Wade Wolgemuth, David Johnson, and Andrew Thacker. The Brom family (Sara, Lori, and Christy) of Hickory designed the royal banner used on stage.

Opposite top: Donegan Smith and Toni Smith fight a battle of words in THE LION IN WINTER. The husband-and-wife team were together on the LR stage for the first time. Opposite below: John-Stuart Fauquet (left), Rick Fauquet, and Mark Adderholdt were the three sons of Henry and Eleanor. Top: Mark Rose as Philip II of France. Top right: Carmen Robinson appears as Alais, a French princess. Left: the Smiths in a tender moment as they pause from their feuding.

CHRISTIE PLAY OPENED YEAR

The College Playmakers began their 1996-97 season with Agatha Christie's mystery thriller, TEN LITTLE INDIANS, in November.

Directed by Donegan Smith, the play was updated in language and setting. The LR production was placed in the Florida Keys.

The cast included Stephen Hayko, Eileen Denninger, Matthew Eberhardt, Catherine Moles, Frank Moshier, Matthew Schafer, Carlos Borges, David Winters, Amy Ogle, Rick Fauquet, and Matt Caveness.

Chip Haas served as technical director and designed a handsome set for the show. Michelle Bouchard served as production stage manager.

BEARS GO 1-9; FORBES RESIGNS

Posting one of their worst records since 1976, the Bears won but a single game (Wingate). Following the final game, Charles Forbes announced his resignation as head football coach.

LR alumni, students, and local fans had agonized through a painful year. Coach Forbes noted, "Basically, the administration and I had different views about what the problems with the football program were and how best to address them." Forbes' record at Lenoir-Rhyne was 30-31.

the community that is Lenoir-Rhyne College consists of memories from the past, experiences of the present and dreams for the future. As students, faculty and staff contribute to this community each day. It is within this community that we come together as one.

This yearbook is pictorial and I wish to extend a sincere "thank you" to James Labrenz of Insight Photographic of Hickory for his continuing excellence in photography. It has been a good experience working with him this year.

Likewise we thank Dr. Karen McLaughlin, Dr. Russell Benton, Mr. Neil Robinson, and Mr. Dom Donnelly for the pictures they contributed to HACAWA.

Special thanks to Viewmont Camera and especially to Mr. Scott Alexander who helped with our picture engagements. Thanks to Skip Duhline, Iris Moore, Ben Payseur, and the ladies in the business office who helped with the distribution of the yearbook.

We are most grateful to Bill Hall of Jostens for the personal interest that he shows in Lenoir-Rhyne College and the HACAWA. Above all, we treasure his friendship. And special thanks to Jakki Davis, our Jostens' in-plant representative.

I deeply appreciate the interest that Mrs. Dottie Crafton has always shown with the HACAWA and all her typing efforts in its behalf.

I would like to say a special "thank you" to Angela Earnhardt, editor of the HACAWA in 1995 and 1996. It was through her inspiration that I was able to work as director of photography and as editor this year. I am most grateful.

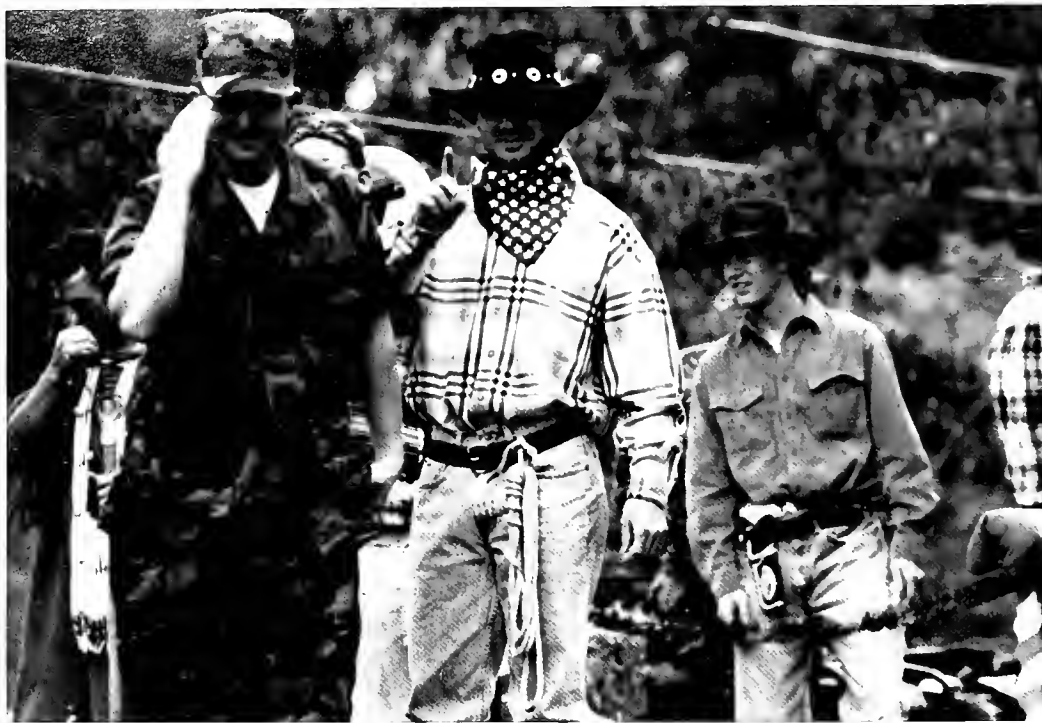

As editor of the HACAWA, I worked many hours with my adviser and friend, Dr. Ellis Boatmon. He has greatly influenced the community at Lenoir-Rhyne with all that he does. His many talents make him a pleasure to work with.

I would also like to thank my parents for all the love and support they have given me.

I wish the best for the Class of 1997. We will always carry part of the LR community with us.

David

The community of Lenoir-Rhyne.

These were the people. These were the events. This was our moment in time.
